Navajo President Joe Shirley, Jr., to announce candidacy for third term to complete work on government reform

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – Navajo Nation President Joe Shirley, Jr., plans to file to run for a third term as president at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Navajo Election Administration office here.

Immediately afterward outside the NEA building, he will announce his candidacy, make a statement to the press, and answer questions.

If elected by Navajo voters, he would become the first Navajo president to be re-elected to a third term.
