FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Happy holidays from Speaker Morgan and the 21st Navajo Nation Council

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – During this special time of the year, let us remember the joys of the holiday season. Let us take this time to celebrate our time together with family and friends, and to also reflect upon the many memories of the past year.

Let us take this time to rejoice and thank the creator for the many blessings that we have received. Let us also remember those who are less fortunate. Let us be committed to reaching out to them and helping them in their time of need.

Let us share the joys of this holiday season by visiting family and friends, by visiting our Navajo elderly, by donating gifts to toy drives, by contributing to local food pantries, and by spreading good cheer through out our communities.

Let us fill the memories of children with laughter and holiday cheer this season as well.

Let us also remember our young warriors in the armed forces that have answered the call of duty once again, they are the ones defending peace around the world. As a result, they are spending their holidays far from home and far from their families.

Let us remind our young warriors that they are heroes and that they are in our hearts and prayers this holiday season. Let us also remind them that their loved ones have the gratitude of the Navajo Nation for the dedicated service and sacrifices that they have made to protect the freedoms that we all enjoy.

Let us continue to pray for our warriors and their families, and may our prayers guide them home safely – we look forward to their safe and quick return home.

Speaker Morgan and the 21st Navajo Nation Council wishes everyone a happy and joyous holiday season. Happy holidays to you and your family. May your holidays be blessed with joy and good tidings.
