Pinedale Chapter hosting 2010 Eastern Navajo Youth Week July 13-15

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – The Pinedale Chapter will be hosting the 2010 Eastern Navajo Youth Week and festivities for the fourth year on July 13-15 in Pinedale, N.M. The event will feature a series of seminars, motivational games, educational presentations and plenty of exciting activities.

“One of the premiere events is the Annual Motorcycle Motorcade and bike show, which will be judged by the general public,” said Anselm Morgan, president of the Pinedale Chapter. “The event usually draws plenty of thrill-seekers, people from across the Navajo Nation and information booths from various programs.”

The event also includes live music performances from various soft rock bands, Christian and country bands. The event is promoting a drug free and trouble free environment.

The schedule of events:

- Tuesday, July 13 – Indoor educational presentation and outdoor games, horse care seminar, patting zoo and archery.
- Wednesday, July 14 – Outdoor games, information booths, watermelon, live music, sheep seminar, horse shoe toss, livestock care seminar, educational and military booths. Motorcycle motorcade and judging with live music at 6 p.m.
- Thursday, July 15 – Various indoor and outdoor activities.

The Pinedale Chapter invites programs to set-up a booth to hand out promotional items and to educate community members about their programs. Chapters are also encouraged to bring their summer youth employees to participate in the event.

For more information, contact the Pinedale Chapter at 505-786-2208.
