FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Judicial Conduct Commission in place to enhance public confidence in Navajo Nation Judiciary

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — Navajo Council Delegate Kee Allen Begay Jr. issued a public service announcement today regarding the Navajo Nation's Judicial Conduct Commission.

Begay, who represents the chapters of Many Farms and Round Rock, said that the Judiciary Committee of the 21st Navajo Nation Council would like to remind the general public that the Navajo Nation has a five-member Judicial Conduct Commission that was put in place to enhance public confidence in the Navajo Nation Judiciary by providing a fair, impartial and expeditious forum to hear complaints and grievances against justices and judges of the Navajo Nation.

These complaints and grievances involve alleged violations of the Code of Judicial Conduct, personnel policies for justices and judges, and any other Navajo Nation laws or policies that set standards of ethics and conduct for justices and judges.

Navajo Nation Code 7 N.N.C. §§ 421-424 outlines the establishment of this commission.

For more information, contact the Judicial Branch of the Navajo Nation at 928-871-6762 or contact the Legislative Advisor for the Judicial Committee of the 21st Navajo Nation Council at 928-871-7171.
