FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

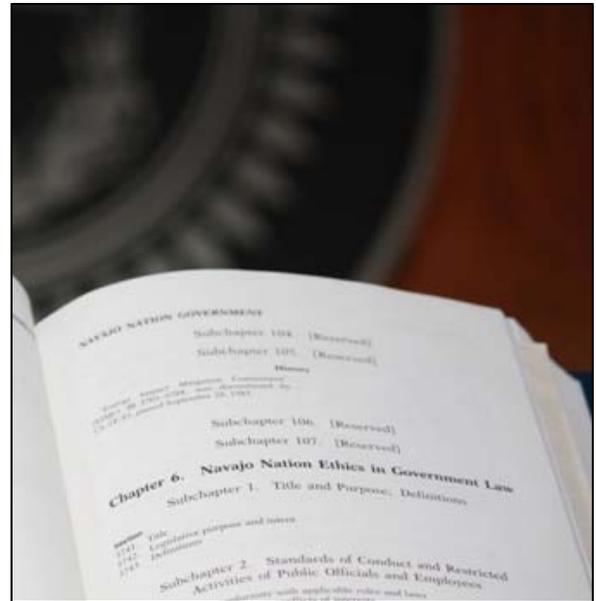

Ethics and Rules Office announces 2nd Annual Standards of Conduct & Ethics Conference on April 28-29

"The conference is a great opportunity for elected and appointed officials, community members and the general public to learn more about the Navajo Ethics in Government Law and the Standards of Conduct for all elected officials." — Lawrence John, executive director for the Ethics and Rules Office.

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — The Ethics and Rules Committee of the 21st Navajo Nation Council and the Ethics and Rules Office are pleased to announce the 2nd Annual Standards of Conduct & Ethics Conference scheduled for April 28-29 in Albuquerque, N.M.

Lawrence John, executive director for the Ethics and Rules Office, said, "The conference is a great opportunity for elected and appointed officials, community members and the general public to learn more about the Navajo Ethics in Government Law and the Standards of Conduct for all elected officials."

A wide array of topics focusing on ethics will be discussed, including: Navajo Ethics in Government Law, regulations and standards of conduct for elected officials, Navajo chapter sanctions, how to request for a chapter audit, employee benefits, recall and qualifications of elected officials and tribal fleet management.

Conference presenters include representatives from the Navajo Nation Office of the Auditor General, Navajo Elections Administration, Navajo Fleet Management, the Ethics and Rules Committee, the Budget and Finance Committee and the Navajo Nation Employee Benefits office.

John is thankful for sponsors of the conference.

The sponsors include: the Navajo Nation Office of the Speaker, Navajo Arts & Crafts Enterprise, Marriot Hotels and Resorts Inc., Navajo Engineering and Construction Authority, Navajo Retirement Services, Navajo Department of Transportation, Hispano Chamber of Commerce, Navajo Agricultural Products Industry, Ellis Tanner Trading Co., Wells Fargo Bank and Wal-Mart of Flagstaff, Ariz.

The conference will be held at Hotel Albuquerque, located at 800 Rio Grande Blvd. NW. For reservations and to receive the special conference rate of $80, call 1-800-237-2133. The deadline to receive the special rate is March 28. Lunch, door prizes and commemorative bags will be available for conference attendees.

For more information, contact Executive Director Lawrence John at 928-871-6369.
