FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ethics and Rules Office announces website for 2nd Annual Standards of Conduct Conference

Participants can register for the conference online via the website

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — The Ethics and Rules Committee and its office are pleased to announce a new website, www.ethicsandrulesconference.navajo.org, for the 2nd Annual Standards of Conduct and Ethics Conference scheduled for April 28-29 in Albuquerque, N.M.

The website, designed by the Office of the Speaker and the Navajo Department of Information Technology, is a resource for individuals and organizations that want to attend the conference. The website provides information regarding the conference, such as: the agenda, registration information, hotel information and a listing of its sponsors. Participants can also register for the conference online via the website.

The conference will be held at Hotel Albuquerque, located at 800 Rio Grande Blvd. NW. For reservations and to receive the special conference rate, call 1-800-237-2133. The deadline to receive the special rate is March 28. Lunch, door prizes and commemorative bags will be available for conference attendees.

For more information, contact Lawrence John, executive director for the Ethics and Rules Office, at 928-871-6369 or by email at lawrencejohn@navajo.org.
