WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — The Honorable Speaker Lawrence T. Morgan and the 21st Navajo Nation Council send their sincere condolences to the family of the former Navajo Nation Vice President Marshall Plummer, who passed on Thursday, March 25, 2010 in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Plummer will be missed for his extensive contributions to the Navajo Nation.

"Marshall Plummer's contribution as vice president of the Navajo Nation is very much appreciated," Speaker Morgan said. "It is a profound loss for the Navajo Nation."

Plummer served as Vice President of the Navajo Nation, from 1991 to 1994 under the administration of former Navajo Nation President Peterson Zah.

Navajo Nation flags are scheduled to be flown half-staff in his honor.
