PRESS RELEASE:

Council Delegate Butler schedules “Coffee with the Councilman,” open office hours on March 5 in Tuba City

“Come join me for a cup of coffee” – Joshua Lavar Butler

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — Navajo Nation Council Delegate Joshua Lavar Butler, To’Nanees’Dizi—Tuba City, announced today that he will hold public office hours from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Monday, March 5, at the Tuba City Chapter House in Tuba City, Ariz.

There is no appointment necessary and Butler will meet with constituents or groups in a one-on-one setting.

“Come join me for a cup of coffee, come share your concerns and ideas. I am here to listen,” Butler said. “This is a great opportunity for residents to share their thoughts, concerns and suggestions about our community and the Navajo Nation Council.”

As part of Butler’s efforts to serve constituents of Tuba City Chapter and to open communication from the local community to the Navajo Nation Council, he will schedule regular office hours on the first Monday of each month.
