PRESS RELEASE:

Tó'Nanees'Dizí Chapter hosting job fair for new Twin Arrows Navajo Casino Resort on May 17

Hunt Construction Group is conducting job fair along with sub-contractors

TUBA CITY, Ariz. — Navajo Nation Council Delegate Joshua Lavar Butler (Tó'Nanees'Dizí) and the Tó'Nanees'Dizí Chapter will be hosting a job fair for the new Twin Arrows Navajo Casino Resort from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Tuba City Chapter House on Thursday, May 17.

Hunt Construction Group of Phoenix, Ariz., the general contractors for the new Twin Arrows Navajo Casino Resort, is conducting the job fair with several of their sub-contractors.

Construction job applications and resumes will be accepted from qualified Navajo applicants for several positions.

According to Hunt Construction Group, positions will be filled in accordance with the Navajo Preference in Employment Act. Job applications from qualified Navajo-Hopi Relocates are welcome.

Resume or qualifications may be delivered in person to any Arizona Workforce Connections Office; where detailed job descriptions are also available. Contact your local Arizona Workforce Connections Office for additional information. The nearest offices to the Twin Arrows worksite are in Tuba City, Flagstaff, Winslow, and Window Rock.

The Hunt Corporation is a Navajo Affirmative Action Employer. Applicants may be required to pass a background check and a drug screening.

For more information, contact Stephanie A. Arthur, Navajo Outreach Project Coordinator with Hunt Construction Group, Inc., at 602-513-9038.
