Navajo Nation Council Confirms New Standing Committee Membership

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – Today, the 24th Navajo Nation Council voted to confirm the new standing committee membership in a Special Session.

Legislation 0016-19 confirms the appointments of 24th Navajo Nation Council Speaker Seth Damon (Bááháálí, Chichiltah, Manuelito, Tsé Lichíí', Rock Springs, Tsayatoh) to the Budget and Finance Committee; Health, Education and Human Services Committee; Resources and Development Committee; and the Law and Order Committee. Council Delegate Mark Freeland (Becenti, Crownpoint, Huerfano, Lake Valley, Nageezi, Nahodishgish, Tse'ii'ahí, Whiterock) co-sponsored the legislation.

By Navajo Nation law, each committee must have representation from each Navajo Nation agency (2 N.N.C. § 110 (A). 2 N.N.C. § 181.). Additionally, Navajo Nation law mandates the number of members of each committee.

First, the legislation was considered by the Naabik'íyáti' Committee. Council Delegate Daniel Tso (Baca/Prewitt, Casamero Lake, Counselor, Littlewater, Ojo Encino, Pueblo Pintado, Torreón, Whitehorse Lake) offered a successful amendment to explain to the Navajo people that all current Council Delegates are members of the Naabik'íyáti' Committee. Later, Council Delegate Eugenia Charles-Newton (Shiprock) motioned to table the legislation, which was successful in a 13-10 vote. According to the standing rules of the Navajo Nation Council, tabled legislation from the Naabik'íyáti' Committee are referred to the full council when tabled.

Council Delegate Rickie Nez (Nenahnezad, Newcomb, San Juan, T'is Tsoh Sikaad, Tse'Daa'Kaan, Upper Fruitland) expressed his enthusiasm to start his term representing Northern Agency on the Resources and Development Committee: "I'm glad to start working together with my colleagues on the Council for the benefit of the Navajo Nation. That's what we're here for – being public servants."

Speaker Damon emphasized the need to balance new and returning representation on the standing committees. "The voters did make a recommendation for change," said Speaker Damon in his presentation.

After the legislation passed, Speaker Damon stated, "I look forward to the committees getting to work. The standing committees are an essential component of Navajo Nation governance, and with new membership, the committees will bring forth positive change for the great Navajo Nation."
