Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission’s

FOOD DRIVE

Help those in need this holiday by providing meals for people who eat at the Grants Community Food Kitchen in Grants, New Mexico. Drop off canned goods or other non-perishable food at the locations provided below to help make a meal for Thanksgiving dinner and to stock the Community Food Kitchen’s pantry this season.

Drop off dates: 11/14 - 11/30

NAVAJO NATION
Human Rights Commission
29 Crest Road in St. Michaels, AZ
Near Hogan Hozhoni in the Apache County sub-division
(928) 871-7436

NAVAJO UNITED WAY
264 Loop Road in Window Rock, AZ
East of the Window Rock U.S. Post Office
(928) 871-6661

NAVAJO TECHNICAL COLLEGE
Lower Point Rd., State HWY 371 in Crownpoint, NM
Call Clyde Henderson for drop off sites on campus
(505) 786-4300/4301

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Donation and receipt of food is not a waiver of the Navajo Nation’s sovereign immunity and in no way does the Navajo Nation or the Navajo Nation Human Rights Commission make any representations, warranties or assurances for the quality, edibility or purity of food; nor do the entities assume liability for any and all actions that could arise from consumption of food.