###

NNHRC advocates for recognition of Navajo human rights and directly networks at the local, state, national and international level to assess the state-of-affairs between Navajos and non-Navajos by conducting public hearings. NNHRC also investigates written complaints involving discrimination of Navajo citizens and addresses the public about human rights and the Navajo Nation's intolerance of human rights violations.

The mission of the NNHRC is "[t]o protect and promote the human rights of Navajo Nation citizens by advocating human equality at the local, state, national and international levels based on the Diné principles of Si'a Naaghai Bik'eh Hózhóó, Hashkééjé, Hózhóójí and K'é." The Diné principles translate to being resilient, content, disciplined and maintaining peaceful relationships with all creation.
