

Navajo Nation Division of Natural Resources Administration
P.O. Box 9000
Window Rock, Arizona 86515
Office# (928) 871-6592 & 6593
Fax# (928) 871-7040

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 17, 2014

Navajo Nation Zoo to Host Sixth Annual Zoo Boo Event

WINDOW ROCK, AZ. – Soothing flute music from a Grammy nominated Navajo artist.

That’s going to be one highlight at the Sixth Annual Zoo Boo Event on Saturday, October 25, 2014, which will feature Vince Redhouse – a noted Navajo flute artist from Tucson, Arizona.

Navajo Nation Zoo Manager David Mikesic said, “We planned this event several years ago as a way to provide the Navajo people with an all-day, fun, free and safe place to celebrate Halloween and allow families to spend quality time with each other.”

Mikesic noted, “We invited Vince Redhouse to this event especially for the adults who can enjoy listening to great music while their children participate in a host of events that we have planned. The event provides a venue for the entire family to stay here on the Navajo Nation.”

The event which attracts approximately 3,000 to 5,000 people will include a costume contest, pumpkin carving contest, bead art crafts, an inflatable slide and jump house, temporary Halloween tattoos and coloring pages.

Navajo Nation Division of Natural Resources Administration

P.O. Box 9000

Window Rock, Arizona 86515

Office# (928) 871-6592 & 6593

Fax# (928) 871-7040

Mikesic added, “Of course visitors can also see the animals at the Navajo Nation Zoo. They are welcome to walk around the trails and view the birds and animals too.”

For more information about the event, please call the Navajo Nation Zoo at (928) 871-6574.