

You're invited to the First Annual

Dine' bi Dá'ák'eh Celebration

FREE!!!

The Navajo Nation Department of Agriculture and partners (National Wildlife Federation, University of Arizona Cooperative Extension, Work in Beauty) welcomes you to tour the Navajo Nation Demonstration Garden! Learn all about Local Birds, Pollinators, Protecting Pollinators – Chemical/Pesticide Safety, Prepare for Spring Planting; and Construct a Wildlife Drinker and an Erosion Control feature.

Where: Navajo Department Of Agriculture, Navajo Nation
Fairgrounds, Window Rock

When: Wednesday, March 4, 2015

Time: 9:45 AM

First Annual

Dine' bi Dá'ák'eh CELEBRATION

9:45 AM

Prayer * Opening Remarks

McKeon Dempsey, Miss Navajo Nation 2014-2015

10 AM

The Local Wildlife Are Our Friends

Chad Smith, Navajo Nation Department of Fish and Wildlife

10:30 AM

Why Pollinators Are Important

Carole Palmer, National Wildlife Federation

11 AM

What You Can Do Before Spring Planting

Gerald Moore, University of Arizona Extension

11:30 AM

Protecting Pollinators & Pesticide/Chemical Safety

Dewayne Thomas, Navajo Environmental Protection Agency

Lunch on your Own

1:30 PM

Build Your Own Wildlife Water Catchment System (Work Demo)

2:30 PM

Permaculture Project: Constructing Erosion Control (Work Demo)

FREE!!!

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 2014

NAVAJO NATION DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

NAVAJO NATION FAIRGROUNDS

WINDOW ROCK, AZ

Brought to you in partnership with:
National Wildlife Federation * Navajo Nation Department of Agriculture * University of Arizona Extension * Work in Beauty

