

Public Information Session

Yazzie/Martinez v. State of New Mexico

Navajo Technical University Wellness Building
Thursday, Jan. 24, 2019 • 3 pm to 6 pm
Crownpoint, NM

A court decision in the Yazzie/Martinez v. the State of New Mexico education lawsuit offers a chance to change education in the state for generations to come.

The Department of Diné Education and the Institute for American Indian Education will provide information about the court decision, which will have profound effects on early childhood education, curriculum, Navajo language programs, English language learners, students with disabilities, preparation of teachers & school leadership, and social welfare.

Panelists for this event will present perspectives from New Mexico Center on Law and Poverty attorneys, educators, community, and families. Community members and educators are urged to attend. The event will be live-streamed at www.facebook.com/ONNSFA courtesy of Navajo Nation Television & Film.

Agenda	3:00 - 3:10 pm	Introductions/Welcome/Invocation
	3:10 - 4:30 pm	Presentation by NM Center on Law and Poverty Legal Team
	4:30 - 4:40 pm	Break
	4:40 - 5:45 pm	Panel with Ms. Yazzie, Dr. Tommy Lewis, et. al
	5:45 - 6:00 pm	Closing comments

Contacts: IAIE Glenabah Martinez glenie@unm.edu Carlotta Penny Bird cpbirdsd@unm.edu (505) 277-8177 DODE Jamie McGee jmcgee@navajo-nsn.gov (928) 871-7677

Supported by the Department of Diné Education and the W.K. Kellogg Foundation.