FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Delegate Amos F. Johnson is one of newest members to appear in the 2007-2008 edition of Madison Who's Who of Professionals

Johnson has demonstrated exemplary achievement and distinguished contributions to the business community

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – Honorable council delegate Amos F. Johnson (Forest Lake/Black Mesa/Rough Rock) is one of the newest members to appear in the 2007-2008 edition of Madison Who's Who of Professionals.

Johnson said the recognition is related to his work as a hydrologist, and is "honored" that he was unexpectedly chosen to be one of the newest members to appear in the publication.

Madison Who's Who representatives "wish to extend congratulations to the professional named herein," which is Johnson.

"The intent of Madison Who's Who of Executive and Professional is to notify all who read this announcement that Amos F. Johnson has reached a level of recognizable success in his respective field," stated a news release from Madison Who's Who. "The Edition of Madison Who's Who is only available to those professionals who are included. This year's edition will, of course, be registered with the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C."

Johnson will receive a lifetime membership among other benefits as a member.
