NAVAJO NATION JUSTICE DAYS

The Judicial Branch of the Navajo Nation is pleased to announce the Navajo Nation Justice Days for 2012. This year marks the 53rd anniversary of the Navajo court system.

Justice Days at the judicial districts of the Navajo Nation celebrate the creation of the Navajo Nation court system. They give the public an opportunity to visit the courts to learn about how our justice system works. Judicial districts will be observing Justice Day with various activities that are open to the public.

The courts of the judicial districts will be holding Justice Day on the following dates and locations:
