

NAVAJO ELECTION ADMINISTRATION

Strength and Dignity Through Voting

Rodriquez Morris, Executive Director
Navajo Election Administration

Melvin Harrison, Chairperson
Navajo Board of Election Supervisors

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 22, 2020

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Window Rock, Arizona - The Navajo Board of Election Supervisors (NBOES) announces that it has passed a resolution to postpone the 2020 Elections filing period for the upcoming Chapter Elections. It was set to open on April 23, 2020, but now will be postponed to a later date due to the current COVID-19 pandemic. The Navajo Board of Election Supervisors and the Navajo Election Administration want to prepare for safe candidate filing and elections procedures and protocols to comport with the Health Department mitigation orders that have been implemented to safe guard the Navajo Nation. The new filing period will be announced via our website (www.navajoelections.navajo-nsn.gov), via media and social media soon.

For more information, the Navajo Election Administration can be contacted via email at navajoelections@navajo-nsn.gov.