

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Delilah Goodluck, Public Information Officer | T • 928.871.6632 | C • 928.592.2959 | delilah@navajonationmuseum.org

“Actors Needed!”

Window Rock, AZ - April 16, 2011. The Navajo Nation Museum is looking for actors for the re-enactment of the signing of the 1868 Treaty between the Navajo people and the U.S. Government.

The re-enactment will take place during the opening ceremony of the 3rd Annual Treaty Days Celebration held in Window Rock, AZ June 1-3, 2012. There are approximately 40 Navajo and Navajo/English speaking roles for actors of all ages. Appropriate costumes and outfits will be provided by the actors/actresses.

Auditions will be held Friday, May 4, 2012 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Navajo Nation Museum in Window Rock, AZ

Roles needed:

12 Navajo Chief Signers (Navajo Speakers) e.g. Barboncito, Manuelito, Narbona, Armijo and more...

1 Interpreter (Navajo/English Speaker) Jesus Arviso

Twin Girls - present during the signing in Fort Sumner, age 3

9 soldiers - e.g. Samuel Tappan, James Sutherland, William Tecumseh Sherman and more...

2 Narrators (Navajo/English Speakers)

Background actors - Men, women, children, baby in cradle board and a dog.

Those interested should contact Char Kruger at (928) 810-8536 or by email char@navajonationmuseum.org.

###

NAVAJO NATION MUSEUM

HWY 264 & Postal Loop Rd. | P.O. Box 1840 | Window Rock, AZ 86515
T • 928.871.7941 | F • 928.871.7942 | www.navajonationmuseum.org

