Computer Lab in the Navajo Nation Library where Navajo Rosetta Stone sessions will take place.

“Navajo Rosetta Stone Classes”

Window Rock, AZ - February 27 - The Navajo Nation Museum is coordinating Navajo Language Rosetta Stone sessions to be held at the Navajo Nation Library in Window Rock, AZ.

The Rosetta Stone company designed their software to teach a language the way first languages are learned, without translation and through imagery and sound.

The schedule is as follows: March 13, 2012 through April 26, 2012. Youth session will be held from 4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. for youth ages 12 to 18 years old. Adult session will be held from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Both sessions will meet only on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

A forty dollar deposit is required to ensure participants commit to their session. Upon completion the forty dollar deposit can be credited toward the purchase of the Navajo Rosetta Stone software from the Navajo Nation Museum Gift Shop. Registration opens March 1, 2012.

Software and equipment will be provided for participants. Due to availability of workstations, sessions are limited to eighteen participants. A facilitator will be available in class throughout the session.

For more information please call Char Kruger at 928-810-8536. Or visit the Navajo Nation Museum’s page on Facebook.
