President Shelly Signs Proclamation For Emergency Preparedness

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – Navajo Nation President Ben Shelly signed a proclamation recognizing Emergency Preparedness Week from today through Jan. 27.

“I want all our people to be prepared this winter season. The snow can get deep and sometimes we don’t prepare for that. We need to think ahead,” President Shelly said.

President Shelly’s proclamation comes as the National Incident Management System, the Inter-Tribal Council of Arizona and the Division of Health, Division of Community Development and the Division of Public Safety all coordinated together to offer communities training called “BE READY.”

“We are helping people learn how they can be better prepared in case of emergencies,” President Shelly said.

The trainings will be offered at the five agencies at the following communities:

       Northern Agency, Gadi’ahi Chapter House, Gadii’ahi, N.M.
       Eastern Agency, Crownpoint Chapter House, Crownpoint, N.M.
       Western Agency, Tuba City Local Governance Support Center, Tuba City, Ariz.
