WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – Based on data and recommendations from public health experts, the Navajo Department of Health issued Public Health Emergency Order No. 2021-002, which will go into effect on Monday, Jan. 25, 2021 through at least Feb. 15, 2021 with the following provisions:

- Extends the Stay-At-Home Lockdown which requires all residents to remain at home 24-hours, seven days a week, with the exceptions of essential workers that must report to work, emergency situations, to obtain essential food, medication, and supplies, tend to livestock, outdoor exercising within the immediate vicinity of your home, wood gathering and hauling with a permit.

- Essential businesses may operate between the hours of 7:00 a.m. (MST) and 8:00 p.m. (MST) daily, including gas stations, grocery stores, convenience stores, hardware stores, laundromats, restaurants, food establishments, banks and similar financial institutions, and hay vendors, provided they comply with provisions outline in the order to help protect employees and the public from COVID-19.
- Refrain from gathering with individuals from outside your immediate household and requiring all residents to wear a mask in public, avoid public gatherings, maintain social (physical) distancing, remain in your vehicle for curb-side and drive-through services.
- Public Health Emergency Order No. 2021-002 is available online at:
<https://www.ndoh.navajo-nsn.gov/COVID-19>

Navajo Nation President Jonathan Nez and Vice President Myron Lizer also issued Executive Order No. 003-2021, extending the limitation of Navajo Nation government services through Sunday, Feb. 7, 2021, due to the high rate of COVID-19 cases on the Navajo Nation. The Executive Order is available online at: <https://www.opvp.navajo-nsn.gov/From-the-Office/Executive-Orders>. The Executive Order also requires Divisions, Departments, programs, offices, non-governance certified Chapters, Enterprises, and Navajo casinos to have a Recovery Plan/Workplace Safety Plan, which includes a plan to provide awareness of COVID-19 vaccination opportunities, in anticipation of bringing employees back to work on Feb. 8, 2021.

“By lifting the 57-hour weekend lockdown, our health care facilities on the Navajo Nation will be able to administer more COVID-19 vaccines on the weekends. Our goal is to vaccinate as many of our people as possible and this helps with that effort. Essential businesses will have limited operating hours, including weekends, which will allow residents to purchase essential items as well. The stay-at-home order remains in effect 24 hours a day, seven days a week with the exception of essential workers, cases of emergencies, and to obtain essential items such as food, water, and medication. Navajo Area IHS and tribal health facilities will continue the vaccine drives and it’s very important that everyone continues to wear masks and take all precautions even after you receive the vaccines. We are in this fight together against COVID-19, so let’s continue to keep our guard up,” said Navajo Nation President Jonathan Nez.

Public health experts continue to caution against the new COVID-19 variant, which is reported to be much more contagious than the current strain of the virus. The new variant has been reported in several states including Colorado, New Mexico, and California.

“Essential businesses will now be open on weekends, in accordance with the latest public health order. This allows our people to shop for essential items on weekends, which helps many working families that often do not have time to shop during the weekdays. Progress is being made in this fight against COVID-19. We have to remain strong, pray, and continue to listen to our public health experts. Please adhere to the new provisions in the latest public health emergency order to protect our people and save lives. Be strong and be safe,” said Vice President Myron Lizer.

COVID-19 testing schedules are available online at the Navajo Health Command Operations Center website: <https://www.ndoh.navajo-nsn.gov/COVID-19/COVID-19-Testing>. Public Health Emergency Order No. 2021-002

Continuing Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) Order and Revising Daily Curfews

- I. Paragraphs I – IX from Public Health Emergency Order No. 2020-004 are incorporated herein, addressing the various Navajo Nation (Nation) authorities related to the current COVID-19 Public Health Emergency as well as escalating incidents and community spread of COVID-19 on the Nation.

- II. A Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) Order had been in effect for all residents of the Nation, requiring individuals to limit their movement within and outside of their immediate communities and to limit contact with individuals who are not in their immediate household. (Public Health Emergency Orders No. 2020-003 (March 20, 2020) and No. 2020-004 (March 29, 2020)). Under that Order, individuals could leave their place of residence only to perform “Essential Activities” which primarily include activities and tasks essential to health, safety, and welfare. That Order also advised that public gatherings in excess of five (5) people should be avoided. The Nation was under a “Safer on the Navajo Nation” Public Health Emergency Order No. 2020-014 (October 16, 2020), under which individuals were encouraged to exercise personal responsibility but were not ordered to stay home. Due to an increase in cases on and around the Navajo Nation, a Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) Order was reissued on November 13, 2020 for a period of at least three (3) weeks, or until December 6, 2020. Another Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) Order was issued on December 3, 2020 for another three (3) weeks, until December 28, 2020. On December 24, 2020, another Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) Order was issued for another two weeks, until January 11, 2021. On January 7, 2021, another Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) Order was issued for another two (2) weeks, until January 25, 2021. The Nation continues to be in red status pursuant to Public Health Emergency Order No. 2020-29 (November 13, 2020). Individuals on the Navajo Nation played an important role in slowing the spread of COVID-19 on the Nation by exercising caution when engaging in public activities and by practicing everyday preventive actions, including wearing masks in public, practicing social (physical) distancing, disinfecting high-touch surfaces, avoiding unnecessary travel, avoiding unnecessary public gatherings, and washing hands for a minimum of 20 seconds. Individuals can continue to slow the spread on the Navajo Nation by practicing preventive measures and staying safe, staying local, and staying on the Nation.

- III. The Navajo Nation recently experienced an alarming rise in positive COVID-19 cases and uncontrolled spread in several communities across the Navajo Nation. These cluster cases were a direct result of family gatherings and off-Reservation travel. They also have led to an outbreak and a second surge in cases on the Navajo Nation. Some states, including states surrounding the Nation, recently experienced a record high number of cases. These circumstances have the potential to overwhelm the health care system on the Navajo Nation if not mitigated immediately. As a preventive measure, a Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) Order is warranted.

- IV. The intent and purpose of this Public Health Emergency Order No. 2021-002 is to re-issue the Stay at Home (Shelter in Place) requirements and to change curfew hours, effective on January 25, 2021 and continuing for a period of at least three (3) weeks, through February 15, 2021. This Order may be extended. These measures are intended to further ensure an effective response to the COVID-19 pandemic by restricting movement of individuals on the Nation to limit contact to prevent the spread of the virus and to minimize the strain on medical response capabilities. All provisions of this Order are to be interpreted to effectuate this intent. Failure to comply with any provision of this Order constitutes an imminent threat and menace to public health.
- V. Individuals are required to STAY HOME and to STAY ON THE NAVAJO NATION. Refrain from off-Reservation travel. Individuals are also advised not to gather with anyone outside your immediate household and to stay within your local communities.
- VI. To mitigate the risk, individuals are required to stay home (isolate or quarantine) and self-monitor for the next three (3) weeks. Isolation and quarantine help protect the public by preventing exposure to people who have or may be contagious. Isolation separates people who may be sick from people who are not sick. Quarantine separates and restricts the movement of those who are exposed to a contagious disease.
- VII. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, “COVID-19 cases and deaths have been reported in all 50 states, and the situation is constantly changing. Because travel increases your chances of getting infected and spreading COVID-19, staying home is the best way to protect yourself and others from getting sick.”
- VIII. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, “Limiting face-to-face contact with others is the best way to reduce the spread of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19)” and “the more closely you interact with others and the longer that interaction, the higher the risk of COVID-19 spread.”
- IX. The Nation’s roads remain closed to Visitors for the duration of the declared public health emergency, and Visitors are advised to refrain from traveling to the Navajo Nation. Tribal parks will not be accessible to Visitors and Tourists during this time. Visitors and Tourists will be informed when the Navajo Nation can safely welcome Visitors back to the Nation.
- X. The Navajo Nation is experiencing a downward trajectory of new cases with no sustained rebound; however, we are cautious as the downward trajectory shows a gradual decline in the last two months. All service units are plateauing and the rate of new infection has slowed down in the last two months. We remain vigilant as new cases are fluctuating in neighboring states and similarly trending to the Navajo Nation, although Arizona remains a concern. As coronavirus vaccines are slowly made available to Navajo citizens, please continue to take all precautions after receiving the vaccine.

THEREFORE, NOTICE IS GIVEN that, pursuant to the power and authority set forth in the Navajo Department of Health enabling legislation (NNC Resolution No. CO-50-14), and in conjunction with the Navajo Nation Public Health State of Emergency Declaration (CEM Resolution No. 20-03-11):

A. Revised Daily Curfew Hours: Starting Monday, January 25, 2021, a daily curfew from 9:00 P.M. MST to 5:00 A.M. MST applies to all individuals across the Nation. All individuals shall be at home during daily curfew hours, except in the event of an emergency or as described below.

do so in limited numbers and should at all times adhere to Social Distancing Standards (such as: not shaking hands, standing several feet away from other people, avoiding crowds, etc.).

3. Individuals are still permitted to cultivate food (i.e. farming) and tend to livestock. However, plan ahead to purchase hay and feed, if needed.
 4. Individuals are not required to remain indoors. Outdoor activity is encouraged and individuals may leave their immediate residence or home site area for exercise such as running or hiking, so long as movement is restricted to no more than five (5) miles from one's home.

Wood collection and hauling, with an appropriate permit issued by the Navajo Nation Forestry Department, is a permissible activity; however, groups are limited to no more than 5 people, masks are required, maintain social distancing to the greatest extent possible, and use hand sanitizer. Coal collection and hauling is also permissible with the same preventive measures.
 6. Refrain from gathering with individuals from outside your immediate household.
 7. Practice all individual preventative measures including wearing a mask in public, avoid public gatherings, maintain social (physical) distancing, and remain in your vehicle for curb-side and drive-through services.
