STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT SHELLY IN MEMORY OF NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL DELEGATE TOM LAPAHE

“My friend and colleague Tom LaPahe, was a highly respected senior delegate of the Navajo Nation, he always put the Navajo people first and loved his job. He will be greatly missed by his community and the Nation.

“I had the pleasure of working alongside Mr. LaPahe for several years and together we made many accomplishments to improve the quality of life for our Navajo people. The First Lady and I send our deepest condolences to his wife Louise and family members.

“He was instrumental in developing many business projects for his chapters, a strong advocate for casino projects and a spiritual leader in the Native American Church. I am deeply saddened by his sudden departure and he will be in our prayers.”
