KAYENTA, Ariz. – On Saturday, Council Delegate Shaandiin Parrish and the 25th Navajo Nation Council congratulate the Monument Valley High School Class of 2025 and encourage the graduates to further their education as they move forward in their lives.

Delegate Parrish gave supporting and inspiring words of praise to the students as the Monument Valley High School (MVHS) graduation keynote speaker.

“Today is a day you will remember forever, a moment that will stay with you as you move forward towards a higher education, a career or traveling the world. Remember your experience in high school and keep the tradition of Monument Valley with you because this is your home. Never forget the love and support from your family and friends as you move on from this part of your life and always keep a piece of home with you to remind you of your culture and tradition,” said Delegate Parrish.

MVHS students celebrated each other’s achievements with hyperactive applause and family members showed their support by ringing bells and blow horns to show their love and support as graduates walked across the stage to receive their diplomas.

MVHS Principal Ryan Dobson encouraged the students to keep working toward their dreams and goals. Teachers and faculty members gave the students words of support as they bid farewell to their students. They encouraged the graduates to continue representing the Monument Valley High School Mustangs wherever they go.

"Today is beautiful day for a graduation," said Delegate Parrish. "I hope the next time I see you will be at your college graduation or as you become a Council Delegates yourself. I am glad to assist you as you aim to go far and beyond."

The 25th Navajo Nation Council congratulates the Monument Valley High School Class of 2025.
