

25TH NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL

OFFICE OF THE SPEAKER

Media Contact:
nlnb.communications@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 12, 2023

Navajo Nation mourns the loss of 101-year-old Diné World War II veteran Steven Harrison

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. – Navajo Nation leaders pay tribute to the life and military service of the late Steven Harrison, a member of the Navajo Nation and World War II veteran, who passed away on May 10, 2023 at the age of 101. Harrison is originally from Kimbeto, N.M., located within the Nageezi Chapter. He is Bit'ahnii and born for Tsenabahi ł nii.

“We cherish our Diné warrior’s service to our people and country. We are saddened by the loss of Mr. Harrison, but we recognize that he leaves behind a lasting legacy based on his honorable military service in World War II. On behalf of the Navajo Nation Council, we honor his life and offer prayers for strength and comfort for his family and loved ones as they lay him to rest,” said Speaker Crystalyne Curley.

Harrison enlisted with the U.S. Navy in May 1944 and was honorably discharged in May 1946. He earned several honors for his service in World War II including the American Area Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with two bronze stars, the victory medal, and the Philippine Liberation Ribbon. He also served on the USS Texas battleship during his time with the Navy.

“The First Lady and I deeply respect and appreciate the sacrifices made by our veterans. We extend our condolences to Mr. Harrison’s family during this difficult time. Losing a veteran is a loss not just for the family but for the entire Navajo Nation. His invaluable service to our great country will live on forever in memory. The countless lives he’s touched and the freedom he helped to protect. May his legacy endure, and his service to our country always be remembered with gratitude and respect,” said Navajo Nation President Buu Nygren.

Following his military service, Harrison worked for Union Pacific, Santa Fe Railroad, Southern Union Gas Co., and built homes in the Farmington, N.M. area. He is survived by his five daughters and one son.

Funeral services for Harrison will be announced by the family. Desert View Funeral Home in Shiprock, N.M. is working with the family on the funeral arrangements. The public may contact Arlene M. Johnson at (505) 444-1551 to make donations to the family.

###

For the latest news from the Navajo Nation Council, please visit <https://www.navajonationcouncil.org> or search for "Navajo Nation Council"